North Yorkers for Disabled Persons

North Yorkers for Disabled Persons (NYDP) is a non-profit organization that provides 24 hour support services to persons with physical disabilities who require assistance in the routine activities of daily living, which enables greater independence, dignity and comfort to the consumer, their families and friends. NYDP offers supportive housing, attendant services and communication assistance in a congregate living environment.

NYDP's Principles of Service:

- To provide physical support and augmentative communication assistance to persons with disabilities;
- To maintain a supportive environment, where each tenant directs his/her own service;
- To encourage personal growth towards independence;
- To adequately staff and maintain the group home; and
- All tenants will adhere to a Code of Ethics that respects the privacy and dignity of fellow tenants.

NYDP's Code of Ethics:

- All employees within NYDP shall maintain the best interest of the client as their primary professional obligation;
- All employees will recognize, respect and promote a client's right to direct their own services and live independently in the community;
- All employees shall carry out his/her duties and obligations with integrity and objectivity;
- No employee will exploit the relationship with a client for personal benefit, gain or gratification;
- All employees will protect the confidentiality of all professionally acquired information. Employees will disclose personal information only when required or allowed by law to do so, or when a client has consented to disclose;
- All stakeholders will advocate change, in the best interest of the clients, the community as whole and for the overall benefit of society; and

- All stakeholders will advocate for workplace conditions, policies and procedures and a social environment that benefits the clients and the augmentative and alternative communication (AAC) community as a whole.

The Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act

In 2005, the Ontario Government passed the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA) with the goal to make Ontario fully accessible in all aspects of daily living by 2025.

Accessibility standards have been created as part of the AODA. These standards are rules that businesses and organizations in Ontario need to follow to identify, remove and prevent barriers to ensure people with disabilities have more opportunities to participate in everyday life.

Ontario combined multiple standards (e.g., Information and Communications Standards, Employment standards and Transportation standards) into a single regulation called the Integrated Accessibility Standards Regulation (IASR). This regulation has been passed into law and the requirements are being phased in between now and 2021. This Multi-Year Accessibility Plan satisfies NYDP's requirements under the IASR.

NYDP'S Statement of Commitment to Champion Accessibility

NYDP is committed to treating all people in a way that allows them to maintain their dignity, independence, integration and equal opportunity. NYDP is committed to meeting the needs of people with disabilities in a timely manner, and will do so by preventing and removing barriers to accessibility and meeting accessibility requirements under the AODA. An assessment of NYDP's previously existing policies and procedures relating to accessibility was performed in order to inform the development of NYDP's Multi-Year Accessibility Plan.

NYDP's Multi-Year Accessibility Plan will be reviewed annually and fully-updated by NYDP at least once every five years or when there are amendments to the AODA, its associated regulations or changes to NYDP's accessibility services and/or policies.

NYDP understands that the IASR does not replace or affect existing legal obligations under the Ontario Human Rights Code and other superseding laws in respect to accommodation of people with disabilities. NYDP will comply with the Ontario Human Rights Code, the AODA and its associated regulations, including the IASR and Accessible Customer Service

Standard. NYDP respects people's privacy and personal information, and will not share a person's information unless it is appropriate with consent, required or legally obligated.

Establishment of Accessibility Policies and Plans

By January 1, 2015 NYDP will:

- Develop, implement and maintain a corporate policies governing how the organization will achieve accessibility;
- Establish, implement and maintain a Multi-Year Accessibility Plan;
- Include within its Multi-Year Accessibility Plan a statement of commitment to meet the accessibility needs of persons with disabilities in a timely manner; and
- Make the corporate polices and Multi-Year Accessibility Plan available to the public on NYDP's website and available in accessible formats upon request.

Note: General accessibility policies are also found in NYDP's Customer Service Plan, and can be accessed via NYDP's website or provided in an accessible format upon request. Only sections applicable to NYDP will be found in this Multi-Year Accessibility Plan, please see "A Guide to Integrated Accessibility Standards Regulation" on the Ontario Government's website for a detailed breakdown of all of the IASR's standards, sections and requirements. Deadlines included in this Multi-Year Accessibility Plan are in accordance with deadlines outlined the IASR or are internal deadlines that are earlier dates than outlined in the IASR.

Appendix 1

Documented Individual Accommodation Plan

The purpose of reasonable accommodation is to enable a person to perform at least the essential requirements of the job as defined in the job posting and/or job description. NYDP is not required to create a job or significantly alter a job as to create a different job in order to accommodate an applicant or an employee.

NYDP'S Accommodation Plan addresses:

- How the employee can participate
- How the employee will be assessed
- How the employee can request accommodation
- How employee can request participation of union representative or bargaining agent in the process, if applicable
- How the employee's personal information will remain private and confidential
- How, and how often, the plan will be reviewed and updated
- How reasons for denied requests will be communicated
- How the plan will be provided to employee

Individual Accommodation Plan

1. Accommodations assist in the inclusion of persons with disabilities into employment activities
2. Individuals are to be accommodated with respect and dignity and NYDP will respond to accommodation plan requests in a timely manner
3. Accommodation is to be made only for those disability related needs disclosed by the employee or applicant that impact on employment
4. Accommodation needs are to be addressed in a way that is consistent with responsible financial management and operational requirements, and does not pose an undue hardship on NYDP
5. Accommodation requirements are determined on person-by-person basis by ensuring that each employee with a disability is considered, assessed and accommodated individually, while maintaining a process that is consistent with the principles of confidentiality

7. The accommodation process allows the involvement and cooperation of the employee's union representative or bargain agent, if appropriate or required. The employee must notify NYDP that they wish to have additional parties present in accommodation process – reasonable parties (union rep. or bargain agent) will be accepted
8. NYDP committed to achieving a culture and work environment that is supportive of employees with disabilities
9. NYDP will review the accommodation plan: if the employee is not satisfied with the accommodation plan, if the employee moves location, when the accommodation policies/plans are reviewed and when the general emergency response policies/plans are reviewed

Return-to-Work Process

NYDP is committed to developing and maintaining a safe and healthy work environment, and understands that it is a good rehabilitation/reintegration practice to ensure a planned and safe return to work process is implemented following an injury or illness.

NYDP's Director will work with staff to facilitate the employee's return to work. Any modifications will be accommodated as soon as possible. Management will use the most appropriate measures for each individual case.

Purpose

The purpose of the Early Return to Work Program is to:

- Provide for the safe and sustainable reintegration into the workforce/job position
- Provide modified employment for employees who are temporarily disabled due to illness / accident or an injury in the workplace

NYDP recognizes that in the case of some disabilities, a complete period of absence is required away from the workplace. In others cases, absence from the workplace is required only during the acute phase of the illness, injury, etc., before a reintegration process into the workplace can occur. The Return-to-Work Process may include the following steps:

1. NYDP will establish a senior level employee (management level or higher) that will oversee the return to work process. If a health specialist is required, NYDP will seek the services of an individual (either internally or externally) who can grant guidance and consultation before, during and potentially after the return to work process.
2. During the course of an absence, the delegated senior staff member and/or health specialist will maintain regular communication with the employee and request updated medical document as required. Once the employee has regained the capacity fit for their return for work, consideration will be given to whether to modify the employee's duties.
3. When a health specialist or physician determines that the employee is fit to work, a customized and gradual return-to-work plan is devised, in the conjunction with the employee, senior management and/or health specialist, and the proposed plan is sent to the employee's treating physician for approval, when required.

4. Once approval has been received from the physician (if applicable), a return-to-work process is arranged with the established senior management employee, health specialist, the employee and a union representative or supervisor (if applicable). The approved return to work plan is reviewed amongst all parties and a formal Transitional Return to Work plan is created. The Transitional Return-to-Work Plan must have a defined end/termination date.
5. All parties review the proposed plan, discuss the details of the plan and each party confirms their agreement to the details defined in the plan by signing and dating the plan. Each party is provided with a signed and approved copy. It is the full responsibility of the employee to work within their restrictions and the responsibility of the delegated senior management employee to ensure no more is expected from the employee than what the plan documents.
6. Communication is maintained between all parties involved during the return-to-work process. A subsequent return-to-work meeting can be arranged, if the plan is unable to be completed, maintained or is deemed ineffective by both the employer and employee.
7. The delegated senior management staff or health specialist will follow-up with the employee once a return to full duties has been achieved. Once this is complete, the employee and employer will both sign-off on the termination of the plan and the file will be closed.

In the event that suitable work can be identified, NYDP will ensure, through the staff member's personal physician and the WSIB where applicable, that the employee is capable of performing modified or accommodated duties. NYDP will inform the employee of the available work and request that he/she report to duty. If the employee refuses to accept the modified work assignment, their continuing employment with NYDP may be jeopardized.

Potential Accommodations in the plan may include:

- Graduated return to work, regular duties
- Modified job expectations
- Alternative duties
- Modified work site
- Job/responsibility sharing
- Difficult task assistance
- Job reassignment
